Dear Mrs R. Vecran

COMOROS PEACE PROCESS

It is without that the Comoros Peace Process, which took place during the course of last year, presented very special challenges to South Africa. As we are aware, apart from immense task of preparing and about to finalize the process, the political nature and global dynamics exposed by the critical substance issues, set the scene for extremely complex and difficult negotiations up until the very last hour of the meetings.

It is my view that ultimately, the success of the Comoros Peace Process came about as a result of the unique interface and partnership which developed between various role players designated to participate in the facilitation of processes.

I would like to convey my sincere gratitude to you for the high level of commitment, support and loyalty throughout the process that resulted in a highly successful process. I thank you, in particular for your professionalism and quality of service you provided and focus without which we could not have achieved this acclaimed initiative by African Union through South Africa. Your Contribution is immeasurable.

You sincerely
